

This 13th workshop will continue the sequence of Economics of Crime workshops in Paris (2009), Bonn (2010), Torino (2011), Rotterdam (2012), Frankfurt (2013), Milan (2014), London (2015), Stockholm (2016), Philadelphia (2017), Paris (2018), Amsterdam (2019), and Gothenburg (2021).

The workshop will be held in person at Bocconi University in Milan, Italy on 7-8 October, 2022. In the unfortunate event that travel restrictions prevent some presenters from being in Milan, Bocconi's new campus features modern auditoriums that allow for hybrid conferences with excellent quality of audio/video.

We aim to bring together researchers from both sides of the Atlantic to present and discuss their work, allowing for an in-depth interaction between those working on the empirical and theoretical analysis of crime and illegal behavior.

The workshop will consist of 15-18 contributed papers, to be presented in 30-minute or 10-minute ("lightning") sessions, and two keynote lectures by Crystal Yang (Harvard) and Federico Varese (Oxford).

This year's edition will focus particularly on organized crime and corruption, but it is not limited to these topics. Other suggested topics include the following:

- Judicial decisions
- White collar crimes
- Social prevention of crime and violence
- Early childhood interventions
- Evaluation of police crime reduction strategies
- Re-entry and rehabilitation interventions
- Guns/weapons (and related policies) and crime
- Social interactions, networks, and crime
- Crime and the labor markets
- Economic crises, poverty, inequality and crime

Submit a paper (in PDF) by sending an e-mail to TWEC2022@gmail.com. The submission deadline is May 1st, 2022. Authors of accepted papers will be notified by June 1st 2022.

The workshop is funded by the CLEAN Research Unit of the Baffi-Carefin Research Center (<https://clean.unibocconi.eu/>). We will cover meals for all participants throughout the conference and we have a limited budget to cover travelling/hotel expenses, so we strongly encourage presenters to use their own research funds whenever available. When sending the paper, please indicate in the email whether you need funding for hotel, travelling, or both. We will give priority to funding junior scholars.

The 2022 Organizing Committee is: Gianmarco Daniele (University of Milan & Bocconi), Roberto Galbiati (Sciences Po), Randi Hjalmarsson (University of Gothenburg), Olivier Marie (EUR, UM, & TI), Paolo Pinotti (Bocconi), Aurelie Ouss (UPenn), and Emily Owens (UC, Irvine)
